WILD BEAUTY IN ALASKA
ICY STRAIT POINT, ALASKA

Immerse yourself in truly unspoiled wilderness. Set deep in the heart of the 17-million-acre Tongass National Forest, the largest in the U.S., this port is centered around a restored salmon cannery that features a museum, restaurants and local arts and crafts shops. Take a whale-watching tour from Hoonah, the largest Tlingit village in Alaska. Drive a Jeep along the old logging roads that crisscross Chichagof Island, home to more brown bears than humans. Watch for Sitka black-tailed deer and bald eagles as you ascend Hoonah Mountain in a window-walled gondola before riding a tram past towering stands of Sitka spruce and western hemlock.

MASTER CARVERS

Klawock, Alaska

Journey to the crossroads of Prince of Wales Island and arrive at the center of Tlingit culture in Klawock. Take the time to learn about their beliefs and traditions by visiting the Totem Park. Located in a remote and serene setting, surrounded by lush pines and hugged by the tranquil harbor, the Totem Park is home to 21 totems, making it Alaska’s most extensive collection of totem poles in a single park. Also, gain historical context about the totems relocated here from the village of Tuxekan. As you continue your day exploring this fascinating village, you will better understand Tlingit culture and the importance of the surrounding environment.

FRONTIER FAME & FORTUNE SEEKERS

SKAGWAY, ALASKA

Skagway, or “windy place” in the native Tlingit language, was known as the gateway to the gold fields during the Klondike Gold Rush of 1897, and for many years after that. Relive the excitement of that era at the Klondike Gold Fields, where you’ll see mining tents, dog sleds, an authentic dredge that extracted gold from the sand and gravel, and various exhibits with costumed characters. Learn the art of panning for gold yourself, using methods popular in the 1890s. Then take a thrilling ride on the White Pass and Yukon Railway and view spectacular waterfalls and lush foliage as the train traverses the rugged wilderness that dominates this region.

AN ICY MARVEL
HUBBARD GLACIER

Among the many words used to describe Hubbard Glacier, “humbling” is perhaps the most appropriate for North America’s largest tidewater glacier. It is 76 miles long and more than six miles wide where it meets the ocean. It is approximately 600 feet tall at its terminal face — 350 feet exposed above the waterline and 250 feet below. It is also over 2,000 feet thick at some locations, and the terminal face’s ice originally fell as snow up to 500 years ago. From your blissful vantage point in an expedition boat in Disenchantment Bay, prepare to be thrilled by the crack of this Alaskan colossus calving into a suddenly roiled sea.

NEW PORT OF CALL

NANAIMO, BRITISH COLUMBIA

A high-angle, top-down photograph of a woman floating in a pond. She is wearing a vibrant green long-sleeved dress and a traditional light-colored conical hat. Her arms are outstretched, and she appears to be holding a small, dark, circular object. The pond is filled with numerous lotus flowers in various stages of bloom, with pink and white petals. Long, thin green leaves of the lotus plants surround her, creating a dense, textured background. The water is dark, providing a stark contrast to the bright colors of the woman and the flowers.

CINEMATIC MOUNT BIZAN
TOKUSHIMA, JAPAN

Spread across the base of Mount Bizan, a gentle summit offering panoramic views and a scenic ropeway ride, Tokushima is the welcoming capital of Tokushima Prefecture on Shikoku, Japan's smallest main island. The city is famed for Awa-Ai, a rich indigo dye used in traditional aizome textiles, and is a meaningful stop along the sacred Shikoku Henro pilgrimage, with four of its 88 temples nearby. Culinary highlights include dishes featuring sudachi, a fragrant local citrus that adds a bright note to noodles, seafood and seasonal fare.

RHYTHM OF LIFE

MUMBAI, INDIA

Feel the buzz of South Asian life in all its colors and charisma in the city formerly known as Bombay. Local life fills the streets, bustling markets abound and you never know if you'll find a temple or a modern shopping center down any given street. This is the capital of Maharashtra state and the Hindi film and TV industry's Bollywood capital, too. A driving tour takes you past some of Mumbai's most iconic landmarks, like the Gateway of India arch, as well as more everyday scenery — perhaps people chanting in prayer or a look at the Dhobi Ghat, where workers huddle over hundreds of pieces of clothing each day at an open-air laundry.

This picturesque city encompasses the 365 islands — 49 are inhabited — of the sprawling Yeosu peninsula on South Korea's East China Sea coast. Historically critical as headquarters of the Korean navy during the Joseon (Yi) dynasty (1392-1910), Yeosu underwent a dramatic modernization when it hosted the 2012 World Expo and today offers a blend of verdant hills, glistening seas and striking architecture. Yeosu is a renowned foodie haven, with restaurants serving traditional fare like egg cockles, gulgui (grilled oyster) and spicy kimchi made with locally grown mustard leaves.

MODERN TO SUBLIME TOKYO, JAPAN

The sprawling metropolis of Tokyo is an engaging capital city of 12 million people. Yet, the bustle will seem incredibly distant from the top of the Tokyo Tower, the second-highest structure in Japan. Be sure to journey to the Ginza shopping and entertainment district, where the merchandise tends to be more modern and fashionable. Here you will also find one of the best culinary scenes in the country. For a more traditional view, journey to Asakusa to visit the city's oldest temple, Senso-ji. Adjacent to the temple is a five-story pagoda, Shinto shrine, the Asakusa Shrine, as well as many shops with traditional goods in the Nakamise-dori.

TATAPOURI REEF WALK & STINGRAY FEEDING

GISBORNE, NEW ZEALAND

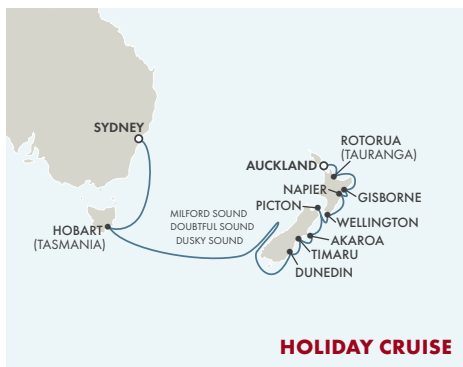

Wade out to a rock shelf off Tatapouri and watch the abundant marine life such as stingrays, fish and octopuses swimming around the reef. Marine life is plentiful here, and chances are you will see Down Under’s most iconic sea creatures. The water is usually teeming with short-tail rays, which look particularly graceful as they glide along the shallow reef. Eagle rays are also common and can easily be distinguished from stingrays by their long, whip-like tails. Both species feed on fish, so you can also expect to see yellowtail kingfish, which in turn feed on trevally.

SAGUENAY, QUÉBEC

With your ship providing a most dramatic vantage point, take in the high, pine-studded cliffs of majestic Saguenay Fjord as you sail its entirety from the St. Lawrence River to its tip at the port city of Saguenay. Explore the town's French Chicoutimi district, stopping at La Pulperie de Chicoutimi museum for a picturesque look at local history and Le Musée de la Petite Maison Blanche, a symbol of the town's fortitude after a devastating 1996 flood. Venture out to discover some of Québec's most picturesque villages and the staggering beauty of Saguenay National Park, perhaps kayaking the calm waters of Cape Trinity.

LUSH ISLAND
FORT-DE-FRANCE, MARTINIQUE

You will be cheering "Vive la France" during your time in Fort-de-France. The capital of Martinique boasts beautiful French architecture, such as the Cathédrale Saint-Louis, several French-built forts and pristine beaches that rival those of the Riviera. All roads lead to La Savane, a serene central park overseen by a statue of Empress Josephine. Among the must-see attractions for nature lovers is the Balata Tropical Gardens in Martinique's lush countryside. Take in fragrant flowers, exotic water lilies, rare indigenous plants and shaded trails. Stroll through the footbridge situated in the trees for the ultimate vantage point.

BOHEMIA

KEY WEST, FLORIDA

Discover the relaxed pace, storybook architecture and carnival-like street life of the southernmost point of the continental U.S. — the famed bohemian enclave of Key West. This flower-scented little city island is a haven for famous writers, former hippies, and sun seekers from all over the world. You are sure to experience it all as the island is just two miles wide by four miles long. Beyond its sun-soaked streets, Key West invites you to indulge in moments both timeless and decadent — from sipping hand-shaken mojitos beneath swaying palms to exploring private gardens once visited by presidents and painters alike. Whether you choose to sail turquoise waters aboard a glass-bottom catamaran or unwind in the shaded elegance of a historic porch, the island's carefree spirit is matched only by its quiet sophistication.

LIMING & LOUNGING IN ST. KITTS

BASSETERRE, ST. KITTS & NEVIS

Gently rising from the shimmering waters off St. Kitts, a stunning array of white, grey and black sand beaches trace the island's perimeter. Lush green mountains form the interior, providing an ideal habitat for the monkeys that seem to outnumber the people on the island. On St. Kitts, the locals have a special word for hanging out: liming. The most popular place to lime is in the sand and the sun while the sounds of reggae drift in from the beachside bars. When you're ready for a change of pace, experience zip-lining through the Valley of the Giants Rainforest or consider exploring Brimstone Hill Fortress National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

FALMOUTH, JAMAICA

GO WITH THE FLOW

FALMOUTH, JAMAICA

Falmouth stands out as one of the Caribbean's most authentically preserved historic towns, where laid-back island life meets echoes of a colonial past. Once a booming hub for sugar exports, the town still boasts stately Georgian mansions alongside quaint wooden cottages. You'll find real-deal jerk spots near the waterfront, and for something slower-paced, float down the Martha Brae River on a bamboo raft, gliding through thick greenery and passing tropical trees like the ackee. Notable sights include the old courthouse and St. Peter's Anglican Church.

THE GEM OF NAPLES
SORRENTO/CAPRI, ITALY

The island of Capri is the gem of the Bay of Naples and easily reached via ferry or hydrofoil from Sorrento. In Capri, you will marvel at the whitewashed homes and villas, fragrant lemon trees and flower-filled courtyards. While on the island, you should be sure to visit the Grotta Azzurra (Blue Grotto), which is only accessible by boat. Once inside the cave, witness the water's sapphire color, which is caused by the light refraction from the hidden opening in the rock.

NEW PORT

ADRIATIC ALLURE
ROVINJ, CROATIA

Rovinj, perched on the western edge of Croatia's Istrian Peninsula, rises from the Adriatic like a sun-warmed mosaic of stone and sea. Once a humble fishing port, the town now charms visitors with its old Venetian houses packed tightly along the waterfront and narrow cobbled streets that wind their way up to the hilltop Church of St. Euphemia. Within the Old Town, discover art galleries, tucked-away boutiques and open-air cafés filled with the scent of espresso. Indulge in Italian-inspired cuisine paired with crisp local wines. Then head inland to explore Istria's lush countryside, where medieval hill towns, rolling vineyards, olive groves, and the earthy aroma of truffles create a feast for all the senses.

ANCIENT DISCOVERIES

ARGOSTOLI, GREECE

Journey beyond the turquoise bay with colorful fishing boats of Argostoli to visit the archaeological museum and explore the rich artifacts of the Mycenaean culture. Also be sure to travel to the Drogarati Cave to witness incredible stalactites hang from the ceiling like jagged curtains, and ancient stalagmites reach up from the rocky floor in red, orange, yellow and white. Inside the 100-million-year-old cave's Chamber of Exaltation, the acoustics are considered near perfect, and concert events are often held in its capacious interior. Even the famed opera soprano Maria Callas sang here.

PAINTED HORIZONS

MILOS, GREECE

With more than 70 beaches brushed in hues of crimson, rose and amber, all shimmering against the turquoise Aegean, Milos might just be the most colorful jewel among the Greek Isles. The surreal beauty of Sarakiniko, where white volcanic rock shapes a dreamscape like the moon, is unforgettable. Kleftiko's dramatic cliffs and secret sea caves tell tales of pirates and time. Wander the cobbled alleys of Plaka, the island's chalk-white capital, where the famed Venus de Milo was discovered. Then unwind in Pollonia, a quaint fishing village where you can sip local wines and sample cheeses that are carefully aged in volcanic caves.

DIOCLETIAN'S PALACE

SPLIT, CROATIA

In Split, pay a visit to the retirement palace of Diocletian, deemed by UNESCO as one of the best-preserved Roman royal residences in the world. Built between AD 295 and 305, the imposing ruins of the Roman emperor's home can be found throughout the heart of Split, the city that grew up around the palace. Diocletian spared no expense in the construction, importing marble from Italy and Greece, and columns and sphinxes from Egypt. The palace was built from lustrous white limestone from the nearby island of Brac. Within the palace boundaries are over 200 buildings, monuments, shops, and restaurants, plus homes for about 3,000 people.

KRKA NATIONAL PARK
FROM ZADAR, CROATIA

NATURAL WONDERLAND

ZADAR, CROATIA

Zadar is the gateway to Croatia's greatest natural wonders. Visit Krka National Park, a wonderland of dense forests, wild rivers and thundering waterfalls, in particular Skradinski Buk, a long series of cascades that spill over countless travertine rock formations. For a dramatic contrast, head north toward the island of Pag, known for a lunar-like landscape that's home to 30,000 sheep. In addition, Pag has long been associated with intricate lacework, recognized by UNESCO's Cultural Heritage list.

FROM SANTA CRUZ DE TENERIFE, CANARY ISLANDS

IDYLLIC CANARY ISLANDS

SANTA CRUZ DE TENERIFE, CANARY ISLANDS

Explore San Cristóbal de La Laguna in the idyllic Agüere Valley. Deemed a UNESCO World Heritage site, the city is immensely historic and served as the island's capital until 1723. Then, further inland, visit Tacoronte, a village nestled in one of the island's most fertile regions. Apples, figs and other fruit trees are abundant, but it's the flavorful grape that has brought Tacoronte its greatest acclaim as a wine producer. GATEWAY TO THE FJORDS BERGEN, NORWAY

Bergen is famous for the seven mountains surrounding the city center, in particular the iconic Mount Fløyen. A scenic eight-minute journey aboard a funicular takes you to the top of Mount Fløyen, which rises over 1,000 feet above sea level. Complement your ride on the funicular with a vigorous 45-minute hike toward Skomakerdiket Lake and on to the peak of Rundemanen, ascending to a height of 1,870 feet. From this vantage point, the views are simply spectacular.

Irish whiskey is world famous – but there is nothing like sipping the national drink in its birthplace. Toast to your exploration of Cork at one of the many colorful pubs or, for a more in-depth experience, visit one of Ireland's most famous distilleries, the unique 18th-century Jameson Heritage Center. This is the site of the Old Jameson Distillery, a beautifully restored and self-contained industrial complex which will take you right to the heart of the cherished whiskey making tradition. See the fully operational water wheel and the copper pot still of 32,000 gallons, the largest in the world.

EPIC LANDSCAPES & TURF ROOFS

TÓRSHAVN, DENMARK

Expect steep cliffs, narrow fjords and jagged mountains covered with greener-than-green pastures on the southeast coast of Streymoy, the largest of the isles that comprise the Faroe Islands, an autonomous territory of Denmark. Emerald-turfed houses and modern buildings stand side by side in Tórshavn, the country's capital. Admire red-painted buildings that date back centuries in Tinganes, Tórshavn's oldest section, where Norwegian colonists placed their "ting" (parliament) in 825. Visit the quaint, white, slate-roofed Tórshavn Cathedral and modern Nordic House, which is said to capture the essence of Faroese culture. Head to Streymoy's mountainous north for otherworldly scenery, Viking-founded villages and wild waterways.

VOLCANIC GRANDEUR

HEIMAey, ICELAND

This small, vibrant isle is the largest of Iceland's Westman Islands and hosts the largest nesting population of Atlantic puffins anywhere in the world. The waters around this volcanic locale are often ideal for spotting various marine life, including orcas and fin whales. In January 1973, a vast fissure burst open, creating a new volcano called Eldfell that buried 400 buildings and provided enough geothermal energy to heat Heimaey for nine years. Exhibits at the Eldheimar Museum provide more eruption details, though the greatest exhibit of all is the 660-foot-high volcano. You'll also find a 15th-century harbor fort, a world-class aquarium and a folk museum.

CASTLE IN THE CLOUDS

EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND

Take in the spectacular Edinburgh Castle sitting atop an outcrop of sheer granite cliffs. It anchors one end of the famed Royal Mile, an area approximately one mile long that extends down to Holyrood Palace, the official Scottish residence of King Charles III. As you crisscross the streets in this phenomenally scenic Old Town, you will get a sense of what life here was like centuries ago. The streets are busy, narrow and lined with towering buildings Edinburgh-born Robert Louis Stevenson once described as “a dream in masonry.”

SANTANDER, SPAIN

Framed by green, mountainous landscapes and white beaches, you'll quickly ease your pace at this picturesque bayside city in Spain's Cantabria region. Built atop a glorious peninsula and used as a summer residence by Spanish royals in the early 20th century, the Magdalena Palace offers a taste of history and panoramic views of Santander Bay. Centro Botín, which reinvigorated the city's seafront upon its opening in 2017, has been described as "Santander's Guggenheim" — a nod to the Frank Gehry-designed museum in nearby Bilbao. In the city's fishing district, dine on traditional local cuisine such as fried squid or fisherman-style clams.

THE GUGGENHEIM MUSEUM

ARCHITECTURAL WONDER

BILBAO, SPAIN

Bilbao has many things to do, see, and eat, and its urban beauty provides the perfect setting to keep you in awe. The Guggenheim Museum Bilbao, designed by Frank Gehry, takes up much of the modern landscape, clad in swirls of titanium, limestone and huge glass panes. Another architectural wonder is the Vizcaya Bridge, a towering latticework of metal. If the design reminds you of the Eiffel Tower, it's no coincidence; the bridge's architect was a student of Gustave Eiffel.

CHILEAN ADVENTURES

PUNTA ARENAS, CHILE

Although located in a fairly remote part of the world, Punta Arenas is a surprisingly large town with over 100,000 residents and ample opportunities for adventure. You can start with a stroll through the tree-filled central square of Plaza Muñoz Gamero and stop at a street vendor for a savory sopaipilla: a fried, puffed flatbread served with a spicy Chilean salsa. Marvel at the stunning pastoral landscape of a local sheep farm or simply take a moment to reflect while gazing out over the mysterious blue waters of the Strait of Magellan. For an excursion you'll never forget, visit Magdalena Island to watch the entertaining antics of the resident penguins.

THE HARMONY OF FIRE & ICE

REYKJAVIK, ICELAND

Although it's one of the smallest capitals in the world, the city of Reykjavik is home to two-thirds of Iceland's population and exists in harmony with its beautiful, natural surroundings. It's the ideal place to immerse yourself in the local culture. Discover Iceland's fascinating relationship with and dependence on the sea at the Reykjavik Maritime Museum. Stroll through the lush botanical gardens or take in the scenic countryside on a day trip to Geysir, an erupting hot spring. For a new culinary adventure, try some hákarl, the national dish of Iceland, which consists of fermented shark meat, or play it safe and order a traditional fish stew.

CHÂTEAU FRONTENAC
QUÉBEC CITY, QUÉBEC

A LITERARY DELIGHT
DUBLIN, IRELAND

As it's the birthplace of some of the world's greatest literary figures — Beckett, Joyce, Shaw, Wilde, Yeats — one can't help but wonder what it is about Dublin that so inspires. If you spend some time in the city, you'll begin to understand. It's the strong sense of community embodied in its pub culture, in the churches seemingly on every corner, and in the sprawling parks where residents gather to commune with nature. From the ancient books in Trinity College's Old Library to the story of Guinness and his iconic beer, Dublin's heritage is rich indeed. So, enjoy a few pints at a local pub, make some new friends and see if inspiration strikes.

TOLMER FALLS FROM DARWIN, AUSTRALIA

An aerial photograph of a tropical coastline. The image shows steep, forested mountains with deep ridges and valleys. A sandy beach curves along a turquoise bay. The water transitions from light blue near the shore to deeper blue further out. The overall scene is lush and scenic.

This can be used for home-to-airport journeys or to upgrade the complimentary airport-to-ship transfers. Guests will receive their Blacklane voucher directly, giving them flexibility to use this credit to cover any transfer needs starting 10 days prior to their cruise and up to 10 days after their cruise.

In addition, Blacklane is the exclusive provider for private transfers for guests who have attained Seven Seas Society® Titanium status and above, which entitles them to two free private transfers, and for Regent Suite guests who receive the perk of unlimited private transfers.

WHAT CAN A CREDIT OF UP TO $500 PER SUITE COVER FOR BLACKLANE?

The Blacklane voucher for up to $500 per suite will typically cover two journeys, such as home to airport and airport to home, each in a private SUV, carrying up to five pieces of luggage. When booking your transfer, you will have the option of what type of car to select, including how much luggage that vehicle can hold, so you can choose based on your unique needs. The credit is yours to apply as you wish and isn't limited to a set number of transfers or a specific leg of your journey (such as ship to airport).

HOW DO I RESERVE MY BLACKLANE TRANSFER?

About 60 days prior to your sailing, you will receive an email from Regent with instructions on how to access your Blacklane benefits.

ACCESSIBLE TRANSFERS

While Blacklane aims to accommodate all travelers, its fleet of vehicles varies worldwide. To ensure that you have an accessible transfer, please request transportation services directly with Regent through The Executive Collection.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTATION

All Guests must have passports valid for six months following disembarkation and necessary visas when boarding. It is the Guest's responsibility to ensure that they have all necessary documents to participate in the cruise. It is the sole responsibility of each Guest to obtain and have available the appropriate valid travel and health documents for their chosen itinerary. Regent Seven Seas Cruises® highly encourages Guests to submit their travel documents by final payment. Regent Seven Seas Cruises® accepts no responsibility for obtaining required visas or for advising Guests of visa or other immigration requirements. Travel documents are issued approximately 25 days prior to departure. Please refer to the Guest Ticket Contract and www.RSSC.com for further requirements and information.

ITINERARY

Guests acknowledge that the scheduled itinerary is subject to delay, modification, or port-of-call cancellation due to weather and other causes beyond the control of Regent Seven Seas Cruises®. If necessary, at the sole discretion of Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, Regent Seven Seas Cruises® may substitute ports of call or make itinerary changes. Regent Seven Seas Cruises® does not assume responsibility or liability for any loss or expense incurred by Guests as a result of any changes or cancellations. Please refer to the full Terms and Conditions of the Guest Ticket Contract.

RESPONSIBILITY

Regent Seven Seas Cruises® accepts no liability, whether occasioned by railroad, motor coach, private car, boat, aircraft or any other conveyance, for any injury, damages, loss, accident or delay from the acts or defaults of any company or person, or in carrying out the arrangements of the cruise or cruise tour, as a result of any cause beyond the control of Regent Seven Seas Cruises®. Guests specifically release Regent Seven Seas Cruises® from any and all claims for loss or damage to baggage or property, or from personal injuries or death, or from loss from delay, arising out of the acts, omissions or negligence of any other party, such as air carriers, hotels, shore excursion operators, restaurateurs, transportation providers, medical personnel, ship owners, ship operators or other providers of services and facilities. All medical services and independent contractor services are offered solely for the convenience of Guests and are accepted at the Guest's own risk and cost. Please refer to the full Terms and Conditions of the Guest Ticket Contract.

ACTS OF NATURE, STRIKE, OR OTHER CONDITIONS BEYOND CONTROL

Regent Seven Seas Cruises® shall not be liable for delay or inability to perform caused by or arising out of strikes, lockout or labor difficulties or shortages, whether or not Regent Seven Seas Cruises® is a party thereto, or any other acts of nature, God, government restraint, outbreaks or epidemics or pandemics of communicable disease, force majeure or other circumstances beyond the control of Regent Seven Seas Cruises®. Please refer to the full Terms and Conditions of the Guest Ticket Contract.

AIR TRANSPORTATION

Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, as an added service to our Guests, offers arrangements for air travel in conjunction with a cruise as part of our Ultimate All-Inclusive Fares package. Airfares are per person based on check-in date and include ground transfers, all airlines fees, surcharges and all government taxes. Additional airline-imposed baggage charges may apply, and those fees may be reduced based on frequent flyer status, method of payment or other consumer information. Airfares listed with Ultimate Upgrade Air are based on available flights from John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK). Air arrangements, including routings, scheduling, and airline carrier are at Regent Seven Seas Cruises® (or its agents') discretion and are based on flight availability and agreements with airlines. Preliminary air schedules are sent out 110 days prior to embarkation. Special requests, including class of service upgrades, specific carriers and routing, are at the discretion of Regent Seven Seas Cruises®. Custom Air arrangements may be requested 210 days prior to sailing. To request Custom Air, there must be a paid deposit on the booking and the Guest Information Form (GIF) must be completed with Guest passport information. A US$75 nonrefundable Custom Air call service fee will be applied to reservations and, if the Custom Air flight option presented is accepted within three days, will become part of the existing US$175 per person air customization fee. If guests choose not to accept the Custom Air flight option presented, the US$75 fee will not be refunded. Guest travel documents must be completed to customize air, and information must match passport. Platinum, Titanium, Diamond, and Commodore guests will continue to receive a complimentary one-time Custom Air deviation, including the waiving of one US$75 Custom Air call service fee. All air reservations booked through Regent Seven Seas Cruises® (or its travel partners), that are within 1 year of departure will require a US$500 administrative fee for each change to a passenger name. Airfare is non-refundable if canceled within 90 days of embarkation. Due to recent airline policy changes, all classes of service, including Business Class, may no longer include luggage, seat assignments and lounge access. To confirm special requests including service amenities by airline, please check with your specific airline(s) for their respective cost and policy. Wheelchair, oxygen, and meal requests should be made directly with the airline. When booking air arrangements through Regent Seven Seas Cruises® (or its travel partners), some airline carriers will not honor mileage credits for flights booked through non-direct channels. It is the responsibility of the Guest(s) to view their preferred airline's terms and conditions. Due to scheduling conflicts, an enroute overnight might be necessary. Costs associated with an overnight stay are at the Guest's expense. Upgrade offers apply to intercontinental flights only. On intercontinental flights, Guests may utilize Regent Seven Seas Cruises® Business Class Air program or choose cruise-only fares. Airfare quotes and availability are subject to change until purchased and tickets are issued. Tickets will be issued 85 days prior to embarkation. In making these arrangements, Regent Seven Seas Cruises® acts only as an agent on the Guest's behalf, and does not operate, control, or supervise any airlines and is not responsible for carriers failing to meet schedules. Any airline imposed fees that result from changes to or cancellation of air arrangements are the sole responsibility of the Guest. Due to government regulations, if you are delayed or unable to board at embarkation, you may not be able to board at a later time. In such event, Carrier shall have no liability to refund any cruise fares.

TRANSFERS

Guests who elect not to purchase the Ultimate All-Inclusive Fares package or do not purchase transfer arrangements from Regent Seven Seas Cruises® will be responsible for their own transfer arrangements to and from the ship. Transfers are not included for Guests making independent hotel arrangements. The Destination Services desk can assist with post-cruise transfer arrangements once Guests are on board. Regent Seven Seas Cruises® offers all Air/Sea Guests complimentary transfers to and from the airport/ship in conjunction with the air program on the day of the ship's embarkation/disembarkation, with the exception of circumstances where custom air arrangements are confirmed by Regent Seven Seas Cruises®. Guests may purchase private transfers through Blacklane, a transport company, in partnership with Regent Seven Seas Cruises®. Transfers must be purchased directly through Blacklane's mobile app or website, which is not controlled by Regent Seven Seas Cruises®. Guests purchasing roundtrip air arrangements through Regent Seven Seas Cruises® will receive a voucher of US$250 per person (up to US$500 per suite) to use towards a Blacklane private transfer; voucher is only applicable for Guest 1 and 2 in a suite. Guest(s) purchasing a one way flight will only receive a voucher of US$125. Blacklane private transfers are not available in all cities and markets. In the event that Guests are unable to redeem their vouchers due to unavailability, Guests may utilize the group transfer provided by Regent Seven Seas Cruises. Vouchers must be redeemed starting from 10 days prior to your cruise up until 10 days post cruise. If Guests choose to opt out of the Blacklane program, they will receive a Shipboard Credit of equal value (US$125 per person for a one-way flight, or US$250 per person for roundtrip). Guests staying in the Regent Suite will receive unlimited Blacklane private transfers within 100 miles; transfers must be from home to airport, airport to port, airport to hotel, hotel to port, and/or vice versa. For distances longer than 100 miles, a supplement will be required. For Blacklane's terms and conditions, please visit www.blacklane.com.

not reached. Fares are per person based on double occupancy and are subject to change without notice. For further details, please contact Regent Seven Seas Cruises® or your Travel Advisor. Cancellations made 90 days or less prior to the sail date are subject to 100% cancellation penalty. Guest travel documents must be provided by final payment in order to secure a pre- or post-cruise land program. Regent Seven Seas Cruises® reserves the right to cancel the availability of any hotel included in the program. In the event that a hotel is unavailable, the Guest will receive a complete refund and/or will be offered a comparable hotel property based on availability. If a pre- or post-cruise land program is cancelled by Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, Guests who have booked their air through the Regent Seven Seas Cruises® Air/Sea Program will have their flight changed between their gateway city and the ship without incurring a change fee. Regent Seven Seas Cruises® cannot be held responsible for any independent travel costs incurred if a land program, tour or private arrangement made through Regent Seven Seas Cruises® is cancelled due to participation minimums not being met. Flight availability, itinerary and programs are subject to change without notice and do not constitute grounds for your cancellation of the voyage.

- Pre- and Post-Cruise Hotels: A 100% penalty will begin at 90 days prior to the hotel check-in date.
